

FUND STRATEGY

The NewGen Alternative Income Fund seeks to provide unitholders with a combination of steady long-term capital appreciation and a stable stream of income. The Fund invests both long and short in an actively managed diversified portfolio of predominantly Canadian securities (equities, fixed income, preferred shares, warrants, SPACs and options). It employs a broad range of strategies including fundamental long/short, opportunistic long/short, pairs trading, hedging and option strategies. The Manager places a strong emphasis on risk management and defensive market positioning in order to reduce market Beta and preserve capital in adverse market conditions.

MONTHLY COMMENTARY

The NewGen Alternative Income Fund (Class F) was -1.62% in February (1.07% YTD) including a monthly distribution of 4.85c/unit. This compared to the TSX Total Return Index which was -2.45% (+4.78% YTD). Sobering equity market returns in the month of February reflected fears that the Fed's terminal rate could end up higher than initially anticipated. Yields rose alongside a rally in the US dollar. A flight to safety was evident in the market with Materials, Energy and Tech lagging, while Consumer Staples and Industrials eked out gains. Some of the noteworthy winners for the month included: (1) long Summit Industrial REIT (SMU/U-TSX), which closed on its previously announced takeover; (2) short Canada Goose (GOOS-TSX), which reported disappointing quarterly earnings; and (3) long Open Text Corp. (OTEX-TSX), which provided further guidance regarding expected growth from its acquisition of Micro Focus.
