

FUND OVERVIEW

The NewGen Equity Long-Short Fund LP (NGLS) seeks to balance steady risk-adjusted performance with capital preservation, in order to deliver a unique return stream that can provide real diversification benefits. The NGLS aims to achieve this by targeting persistent structural inefficiencies that exist in the equity markets and are particularly prevalent in Canada. In order to minimize downside volatility, the Fund adheres to disciplined risk management targets, with a highly liquid portfolio and defensive exposures (market and sector).

The Fund's active management style is based on an investment process that merges both trading and fundamental analysis and sources Alpha (excess return) from stock-specific ideas with catalysts (i.e. corporate updates, financings, index addition/deletions, clean-ups/blocks, strategic reviews, M&A, etc) over a short and medium-term time horizon. The portfolio is typically concentrated around 40-60 positions that are balanced between both longs and shorts. Through this portfolio composition, net exposures generally range from 20-40%, thereby minimizing Beta (systematic risk).

MONTHLY COMMENTARY

The NGLS F fund was -4.34% in May (6.76% YTD) compared to the TSX Composite which was 2.55% (6.25% YTD). The TSX finished up on the month, erasing the prior month's losses, but falling short of its intra-month highs. Equity markets remained supportive while inflation data came largely within forecasts, leading many to believe that the Fed will hold off its first cuts until the end of the year, while the Bank of Canada began cutting at its June meeting. Commodity prices sustained their gains, with gold and copper relative flat. Oil traded down but maintained a healthy range in the mid-to-high $70s. Yields finished lower, while the US dollar was down slightly. Across the TSX, Materials (+6.1%), Utilities (+5.6%) and Consumer Staples (+4.3%) led while Healthcare (-15.6%) and Technology (-6.2%) lagged. Some noteworthy winner from the month included: (1) long Celestica (CLS-TS), which continues to experience strong tailwinds from the growth in demand of AI related infrastructure; (2) Long Coeur Mining (CDE-NYSE), which reported in-line production, maintained its guidance and remains on track with the expansion of its Rochester asset; (3) long Gold Royalty Corp (GROY-NYSE), which reported in-line financial results and strengthened its balance sheet with a bought deal financing.
