MONTHLY COMMENTARY

The NewGen Alternative Income Fund (Class F) returned 3.71% in August (10.81% YTD) including a regular monthly distribution of 4.85c/unit. North American equities managed another month of gains in August despite a barrage of political and economic cross currents. The S&P 500 rose 1.9%, its fourth straight monthly gain and 20th record close of the year, while the Nasdaq added 1.6% and the Dow outperformed at +3.2%. The TSX finished +1.2%, buoyed by its exposure to the materials sector. The August 1 tariff deadline saw the U.S. impose 35% levies on select Canadian goods and expand steel and aluminum tariffs. Copper, reeling from July's collapse, stabilized but remained volatile. Meanwhile, Big Tech earnings helped cushion markets, with Microsoft and Meta beating expectations and lifting sentiment even as Nvidia and Dell corrected late in the month. The Federal Reserve held rates steady at its August meeting, while signaling that cuts could come as early as September if inflation continued easing. In commodities, crude and bitcoin finished the month lower, while gold ended the month at an all-time high of $3,448/oz. Copper rebounded from a volatile July to finish the month +3.8%. The US dollar slid along with a sell-off in yields. Across the TSX, Materials (15.8%), Health Care (+9%) and Technology (+6.2%) led, while Industrials (-0.1%), Utilities (-0.4%) and Consumer Staples (-0.8%) lagged.) Some noteworthy winners from the months included: (1) long Capstone Copper (CS-TSX), which reported better than anticipated quarterly results and appreciated in response to the rise in the price of copper, (2) long Chemtrade Logstics (CHE/U-TSX), which reported a quarterly earnings beat and a plan to repurchase its shares in the market; and, (3) long Enerflex (EFX-TSX), which reported positive quarterly earnings with a stronger than anticipated backlog.
